

CODE OF CONDUCT

Attendance at your With One Voice choir rehearsals and events is conditional upon all participants adhering to the Code of Conduct.

All participants agree to:

1. follow the conductor's and coordinator's directions
2. make every effort to learn the requested lyrics and music
3. help set-up, pack down and tidy rehearsal and performance venues
4. take reasonable steps to avoid putting self and others at risk
5. use polite and respectful speech at all times
6. refrain from using any drugs or alcohol during and immediately preceding any With One Voice rehearsal or event
7. Avoid acting or speaking in any way that makes other members feel unsafe or uncomfortable. This includes (but is not limited to) actions or speech of a violent or sexual nature.
8. welcome others to the choir in a friendly and inclusive manner

If you are the subject of inappropriate behaviour from someone at a With One Voice choir rehearsal or event, you should report it to the Conductor or someone you trust in the volunteer team.

Creativity Australia reserves the right to exclude any person from participation in the With One Voice choirs for breaching the Code of Conduct.

For questions or queries about the above information please reach out to your Choir Coordinator, or contact the Creativity Australia team :
