

CONDUCTOR TALKING POINTS

WEEK FOUR: VOLUNTEERS

Cast a Spotlight on your Volunteer Team

- Introduce your committee, and highlight all the things they do to keep the choir running.
- Champion their efforts, and explain how the choir cannot exist without their help.
- Highlight the victories the team has had, and the challenges they have overcome.

Invite EVERYONE to Join the Volunteer Committee

- Talk about the benefits of volunteering: you are valued, you are an integral part of the choir, you have a chance to connect deeper on a social level.
- Explain how we can find a job suited to all interests and skill sets.

Be Clear about What is Needed

- Talk about what roles could be helpful to be filled.
- Give people clear instructions on who to talk to if they'd like to get involved.

We need to hero our volunteers, and make it a FUN and ENTICING committee to be part of.
